THE SINGULARITY

By Dev Shakya && Nirdesh Tyagi

INTRODUCTION

The project SINGULARITY which started 2 week ago has been brought to an end by our honorable Developer i.e Dev Shakya and our back-end team of Nirdesh Tyagi.

The website will serve the main purpose of , providing study materials, notes, books

Trick, assignment, and other helpful stuff , handpicked by our skilled team members.

Website Structure

1. This time the website have some security measures to protect the crucial materials lying inside the website. The main page will have a box-button which you have to click in order to access the main website called THE SINGULARITY.

Now your screen will have a popup which will ask you about a password to enter the " Protected Area " . We have calculated the risk and permute the possibility of password leak we will not alter any password further so, we have add a additional feature which only authorised members will have the knowledge about, so there will be a extra space in the pop-up menu you have to delete that space and then enter the password.

Password

So I am assuming, if you are reading this you are a member of "STEM GROUP" and you all are authorised to access the website , in order to get the password you have to send your email-id in the group and in 24-hours our team will send you password.
